News from Al Seeliger Elementary School

PRINCIPALS' TREASURE

Spring will go quickly, and before we know it, students will be off on summer break. This is a good time to get your child interested in the public library. Look for great summer reading incentive programs as a terrific way to keep students reading all summer long. Did you know your children, no matter what their age may be, still love to hear you reading to them? Read alouds, whether they are done by teachers, or you, are a great model of what good, fluent reading sounds like and can be a great form of family time. Providing a model of good reading and engaging your children in discussion of what was read, gives your child a family-to-school link that promotes a growth and love of literacy. If you are wondering what to read to them, it can be anything! It can be the local newspaper, magazine article, picture books, and chapter books. Anything that is of interest to your family is the perfect place to begin.

Standardized tests—the SBACs are coming!

There are a number of ways that you can maximize your child's learning capabilities throughout the school year, which can lead to confident test-taking. Some of these strategies include:

- Assisting your child with homework and ensuring that your child is completing all homework assignments
- Helping your child to develop good study habits, thinking skills, and a positive attitude towards education from an early age
- Ensuring that your child has good attendance at school
- Staying in communication with your child's teacher
- Encouraging your child to read as much as possible to increase vocabulary - even reading magazines, newspapers, and comic books regularly will help improve her reading skills & word knowledge
- Looking for educational games and programs that engage your child
- Helping your child learn how to follow directions carefully

As you help your children do their best on the tests they take and in all of their schoolwork, also remind them that testing is just one part of their education. With your support and involvement, they will be well on their way to their own bright future.

Crowd starting to gather last year:

SPRING IS IN THE AIR!

Parents, please be kind to our hard-working staff as they work to keep our children safe before and after school. Your courteous example in following our parking lot rules goes a long way to help other parents do the same, and keeps everybody on campus safe and HAPPY! 😊 😊

ATTENDANCE MATTERS

Missing a day of school here and there may not seem like much, but absences add up!

Yearbooks may not be purchased online after April 9th, but don't worry! We will be selling them after we receive our shipment in May. More info to come. $20 cash only!
